SIR HENRY HARDMAN PAMPHLET COLLECTION

Sir Henry Hardman, KCB 1962 (CB 1956) was born December 15, 1905. He is the son of the late Harry Hardman of Old Trafford, Manchester, and the late Bertha Cook Hardman. He married Helen Diana, daughter of the late Robert Carr Bosanquet of Rock, Alnwick, Northumberland, and Ellen Sophia Bosanquet. He has one son, John Paul, born February 18, 1947, and two daughters, Anna Margaret, born January 22, 1945, and Charlotte Elizabeth, born December 29, 1947.

Sir Henry was educated at Manchester Central High School, and the University of Manchester. He was Lecturer for the Workers' Educational Association from 1929-1934, and Tutor in Economics at the University of Leeds from 1934-1945. He received an honorary LLD from the University of Manchester in 1965.

He joined the Ministry of Food in 1940; was Deputy Head of the British Food Mission to North America from 1946-1948; Under-Secretary, Ministry of Food, 1948-1958; Minister, United Kingdom Permanent Delegation to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, Paris, 1953-1954; Deputy Secretary, Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food, 1955-1960; Deputy Secretary, Ministry of Aviation, 1960; Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Aviation, 1961-1963; Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Defence, 1963-1964; Permanent Under-Secretary of State, Ministry of Defence, 1964-1966.

He was a Member of the Monopolies Commission, 1967-1970 (Deputy Chairman, 1967-1968); Chairman, Committee of Enquiry into the Post Office Pay Dispute, 1971; Consultant to the Civil Service Department on the dispersal of government work from London, 1971-1973 (report published in 1973); Chairman, Covent Garden Market Authority, 1967-1975; Chairman, Home-Grown Cereals Authority, 1968-1977; Member of the Intervention Board for Agricultural Produce since 1972; Governor and Trustee, Reserve Bank of Rhodesia, 1967-1979.

The Sir Henry Hardman Collection was purchased by Trinity University in 1983. Included in the acquisition of over 7,000 volumes were 2,083 pamphlets written by 1,101 authors and published by 375 publishers.

The "Hardman Pamphlets" span the years 1920 to 1973, with the bulk of the material falling into the period 1928 to 1945. The pamphlets cover a broad spectrum of subjects, the greatest emphasis being on twentieth-century British, labor-oriented literature, ranging from political theories, primarily socialism, to practical worker education movements.

LIBRARY-SPECIAL COLLECTIONS

Included in this coverage are publications by such well-known writers as William H. Beveridge, Ernest Bevin, Stafford Cripps, Maurice H. Dobb, David Lloyd George, Harold J. Laski, George Bernard Shaw, Leonard Woolf, and Barbara Wootton.

Noteworthy publishers include the British Broadcasting Corporation, Fabian Publications, Ltd., the Fabian Society, the Labour Party, and the Workers' Educational Association. These are just a few of many publishers.

The pamphlets are arranged in folders either alphabetically by author, or numerically (if part of a series). The folders are filed alphabetically by publisher, and are located in the Library's Department of Archives and Special Collections.

Bibliographic access to the pamphlets is via broad subject headings in the microfilm catalog, an author list, a publisher list, and a card file which is arranged alphabetically by the main entry (author or publisher). The card file is also located in the Department of Archives and Special Collections.
